SCRATCH AND PERFORMANCE RACING

October racing has been raced in predominantly light sea breezes with the first regatta of the month abandoned due to a blusterly south wester. Due to the return of daylight saving we have been able to race to 6.30 pm and complete more races. After eight regattas and two drops scratch results see Brad Quiggin well ahead of Dave Anstey second and Adam Cooke third. Marshall Harper and Barry McCarthy are leading the performance pointscore with Brad Quiggin third.

PURSUIT RACING

The ninth round of the Orrell Cup was abandoned and the 10th round was sailed on the 16th October. The day's winner was Tony Steel. Marshall Harper is ahead in this series followed by Dave Anstey second with Simon Griffiths third.
